From the Intermediate 1 Directions for Administering, the teacher says the following:

SAY Read the directions while I read them out loud. "Directions: Listen carefully to the paragraph that is read to you. You may take notes on your scratch paper, if you wish. Then listen to each question about the paragraph. Choose the best answer, and mark the space for the answer you have chosen."

Go to question 25. Listen to this paragraph.

"Soon the city will begin work on a new neighborhood park on Franklin Street. We need your help to think of a good name for our new park. If you have a good idea, why not enter our Name the Park Contest? To enter, print your name, age, and school along with your idea for the name on a piece of paper, and put it inside a letter-sized envelope. Put your entry in one of the special big red boxes in your school's office by the first day of February. The winner will get a $50 savings bond and will help Mayor Vasquez open the park at a ceremony on June 12th."

- 25 This announcement was written in order to get listeners to -
A visit a park.... B think of a park name.... C buy a new toy....
D give money for a new park.

Dictated selections and questions reflect the listening materials students hear in school and outside of the classroom.
